At that moment he caught a glimpse of the benign face of the "minister," paering through the fence, and instantly added—
"If I may be allowed the expression."

THE DEVIL RIGHT."-A prosy lay-memper of the church rose in the meeting and

My friends, the devil and I have been fighting for more than twenty minutes. He told me not to speak to-night, but I determined I would. He said some of the rest could speak better than I, but still I felt that I could not keep silent. He even whispered that I spoke too often, and that nobody wanted to hear me, but I was not to be put down that way—and now I have gained the victory, I must tell you all that is in my heart. Then followed a tedious harangue.

Coming out of the session room, the good pastor inclined his head so that his mouth approached the ear of the militant member and whispered. 'Brother, I think the devil was right.'

Do not trifle with your health, and use cheap and dangerous medicine, which Druggists have bought, and will recommend, being ignorant of their properties.

They are a certain cure for all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the Female constitution is subject. They moderate all excess, and remove all obstructions: They invigorate the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system the hug of hearth is restored to the cheeks, weakriess of the spine and limbs relieved, and all the indications of Nervous Debility removed. No maiden, wife, or mother should be without them.

Try them—use according to direction, and
